

Learner Management Policy
NDS-SP-LM-03-2022

Table of Content

Contents

Table of Content.....	2
1. Policy Background	4
1.1 Purpose of this Policy	4
1.2 Legal Base of this Policy	4
1.3 Terminology used in this Policy.....	Error! Bookmark not defined.
1.4 Supporting Resources to this Policy.....	5
1.5 Stakeholders of this Policy	Error! Bookmark not defined.
2. Learnership Contract Management.....	7
2.1 Policy – Employer Contract Management	7
2.2 Employer Selection	7
2.3 Employer Contract Management.....	7
2.4 Employer Financial Management.....	8
3. Learnership Programme Management	9
3.1 Policy on Learnership Programme Management	9
3.2 Programme Roll out.....	9
3.3 Workplace Monitoring and Assessment	9
3.4 Programme Adjustments.....	9
4. Learnership Learner Management	10
4.1 Policy on Learnership Learner Management.....	10
4.2 Learner Recruitment, Selection and Entry.....	10
4.3 Learner Contracts	11
4.4 Learner stipends and work allocation	11
4.5 Learner Support.....	11
4.5.1 Orientation Programme	11
4.6 Learner Conduct	11
4.6.1 General Conduct.....	12
4.6.2 Alcohol	12
4.6.3 Prohibited dependence-forming drugs	12
4.6.4 Academic integrity	13
4.6.5 Theft and related transgressions.....	13

4.6.5	Damage to property	13
4.6.6	Language.....	13
4.6.7	Relationship with Staff	14
4.7	Learner Rights in freedom of expression.....	14
4.7.1	Holding of Meetings and Functions	14
4.7.2	Distribution of Publications.....	14
4.7.3	Petitions.....	15
4.7.4	Enterprises	15
4.7	Learner Transgressions	15
4.7	Disciplinary Measures.....	16
4.7.1	Supervision and control of learner disciplines.	16
4.7.2	The Disciplinary Hearing Committee	16
4.7.3	The Learner Counsellor	Error! Bookmark not defined.
4.7.4	Contents of Summons	17
4.7.5	Service of Process.....	17
4.7.6	Proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee.....	17
4.7.7	Hearing in Absentia.....	18
4.7.8	Rights of the accused learner and powers of the prosecutor.....	18
4.8	Learnership Grievance Procedure	19
6.	Policy Maintenance	19
6.1	Policy Statement – Maintenance.....	19
6.2	Quality Objectives and Quality Indicators of this Policy	20
6.3	Costing of Policy Implementation	20

1. Policy Background

1.1 Purpose of this Policy

The purpose of this Learner Management Policy is to inform all academic staff, administration staff, support staff and students at NDS Chefs Academy of the procedures followed for recruitment, selection, contracting of learners to stipends in the case where a learner gets stipend, provision, workplace management, assessment and placement, reassessments, payments as well as liaison and reporting to the professional bodies affiliated to.

The aim of this policy is to –

1. establish personal and organizational accountability for Learner Management at NDSCA, and create awareness of the role of learnership management in the organizational business model
2. establish a system of Learner Management for academic, administrative and support staff, as well as clear guidelines on managing issues that deals with the training of NDS Chefs Academy student.

1.2 Legal Base of this Policy

This policy is based on the provisions for

- ETQA Regulations 1127
- Learnership Regulations for SETAs
- QCTO Regulations
- Drugs and Drug-smuggling Act, No. 140 of 1992
- CITY & GUILDS/ SETA Monitoring and Auditing Policy

1.4 Supporting Resources to this Policy

This policy must be read in conjunction with the standard documents and templates provided by NDS as outlined in the Quality manual – Document Register. Policies in support of this policy are as follows:

- Administration Data Management Policy
- Academic Honesty Policy
- Certification and Graduation Policy
- Confidential Policy
- Selection and Induction Policy

This policy is aimed at addressing

a. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

All NDS Chefs Academy staff with duties and responsibilities regarding academic functions, with particular reference to staff managing learnerships, from learner management, provision, assessment and moderation, as well as workplace monitoring, administration staff ensuring that all learning resources are available for all training, and supporting staff ensuring that all areas are ready and available for training.

b. LEARNING RESOURCES

All learners must have learning resources, learning material and logbooks will be provided by the college and electronic gadgets such as laptop, tablet or laptop are provided by the learners themselves.

Every learner must have a working email address and working whatsApp number. All formal communications apart from face to face will be send to the learners via email or whatsApp.

c. TEST, EXAMINATION AND PRACTICAL RE-WRITE

All NDS Chefs Academy private students will be registered on City and Guilds, QCTO and CATHSSETA Data base

All students will be subjected to all methods of assessments conducted at NDS Chefs Academy.

Every year the students will partake in 2 summative exams, at the end of each semester.

All assessments that the students have failed such as tests and exams (internal or external) are not covered in the school fees and the students will have to pay cash for all those. Prices of these re-examinations will change yearly.

Students have to pay for the Re-exam before writing or doing practicals again.

Prices for the re- exams are charged as follows.

- TEST - re-write fee is R200.00 for every test the students has to rewrite and this will be written at the end of each term.
- EXAMS IN HOUSE – re-write fee is R500.00 for every exam failed and this will be written at the end of the semester.
- PRACTICAL CLASS- All practical class that a student failed or did not attend fee is R600.00 per practical.
- PRACTICAL EXAM- All practical exams fee R1200.00 per exam.
- CITY AND GUILDS EXAM- All re-write price will be obtained from City and Guilds and given to the student with bank account to pay directly to City and Guilds.
- TRADE TEST- Re-examinations of Trade Test will cost R5980.00 practical Exam

2. Learnership Contract Management

2.1 Policy

Call out is issued or advertised as per learnership requirements.

Interviews takes place

Screening process takes place

Learners submit all required documents.

Office prepare file for the funder as well as the SETA.

Learners get recorded on the SETA Database

Induction will be conducted with every group of learnerships.

All learner documents will be signed and kept in the safe.

NDS not employer – places learners with host employers

Sub-contract via primary employer / provider as secondary provider

2.2 Employer Selection

How are employers selected for partnerships – based on relationship history / credibility / scope of business enterprise in line with learnership requirements?

Partnership criteria – negotiation of roles and responsibilities in learnership agreement

Scope and role definition defined during negotiations and roles agreed to – division between work and provision roles of learner and contract partners related duties.

2.3 Employer Contract Management

Coordinators monitor workplace component and liaises with appointed workplace supervisors or appointed mentors to report progress on learnership workplace. Academic manager monitors liaison and deals with employer counterpart

Meetings with host employer through Coordinators and reports drafted for visits to Academic Manager.

Visits must take place at least once every 2 months, but more often where problems are experienced.

Monitoring and management of contract obligations, liaison – meetings and reports (frequency and formats)

2.4 Employer Financial Management (Only for Learnerships & Internship)

SETA pays employer – Directors responsible for financial management.

Stipends – paid by employer, unless contractual agreement with employer to take over certain duties as host employer, i.e. stipends.

Directors manages finances agreement as per contract monitoring and management of funds.

3. Learnership Programme Management

3.1 Policy on Learnership Programme Management

Roll out policy as follows:

All learnerships:

Learnership Induction programme with learners and employer staff.

Roll out schedule done by coordinators before induction programme.

3.2 Programme Roll out

Who and how is planning done and scheduling, liaison with employer (Department Managers and Coordinators) on roll out and agreement for release of learners – Department Managers

Monitor implementation schedule – Academic Manager

Project plan updates, monitoring and review during learnership roll out.

3.3 Workplace Monitoring and Assessment (Include Private Students, Learnerships & Internships)

Structuring of workplace component, monitoring of learners on site, liaison with workplace supervisors and assessors, collection of evidence on site, access to learners. Monitoring of provision – system, frequency. Coordinators and Departmental Managers

Assessors conduct assessments, scheduled by coordinators.

Class assessments done by facilitator

3.4 Programme Adjustments

Academic Manager ONLY may change on written application from coordinators and employer contact.

Department manager communicates change to employees and ETD staff where applicable.

4. Learnership Learner Management

4.1 Policy on Learnership Learner Management

Get learners from employer – assist in diagnostic assessment

Advise client on suitability of the candidate

Policy statement on learnership learner management

NDS policy is to run both funded and non-funded learnerships.

Funded:

Application via employers or direct application to SETA. Funds paid by employer upon commencement of the programme.

Non Funded

Application directly to students and approved and school fees paid on the terms agreed upon registration.

4.2 Learner Recruitment, Selection and Entry

Self funded student

Admission to NDS Chefs Academy, is done through a straight forward process. Complete application form, with supporting documents. Once accepted you received the following documents:

Acceptance Letter with all the necessary dates

Invitation for Interview

Registration Form

Enrolment form

Issued with a student Number

Learnership & Internship

Admissions to a learnership programme are carried out within the provisions of the general law and government policies relating to admissions into a learnership/ internship and skill program.

The learners must be at least 18 years old and the unemployed learners should be at least under the age of 35. The qualification must be at least Grade 11. Same documents as Self-funded students will be completed and same procedure followed thereafter.

4.3 Students/Learner Contracts

When Students/ learners sign their contract, they subject themselves to the rules and regulations of the employer/ industry, of which these Learner Regulations form part.

4.4 Learner stipends and work allocation (Only applicable to Learnerships AND Internships)

All finances are handled by the employers.

4.5 Students/Learner Support

Types of support above normal policy, workplace interventions, including appeals and complaints.

Guidance with respect to enduring assistance with regard to adapting to structured learning, relationships, and emotional and other personal problems.

Responsible staff, provide the support that the student will require.

4.5.1 Orientation Programme

During the orientation period for students/learners, NDS offers an induction programme for a period determined by the College, with the purpose of familiarising students/ learners with the new circumstances and environment so that they may acquaint themselves with academic and social matters as soon as possible.

4.6 Learner Conduct

All staff members and students share the responsibility of ensuring that students comply with the rules and regulations of the NDS Chefs Academy and the employer.

Formal disciplinary measures may be implemented by the College management, Employment Management, and NDS representative, the student committees or any other disciplinary bodies, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Regulations for Learner Discipline.

A student commits a transgression if he/she transgresses any rule of these regulations or any of the NDS policies.

4.6.1 General Conduct (this is read together with the students Code of Conduct policy)

1. Students must conduct themselves everywhere and at all times in such a way that the NDSCA is not discredited.
2. A student commits a transgression if he/she commits the following:
 - a. Dishonest behaviour.
 - b. Violent behaviour.
 - c. Immoral behaviour.
 - d. Any behaviour that harms or may harm the honour or good name of others.
 - e. Supplying essentially false information about the NDSCA.
 - f. Making statements to the press or any other organisation in which learners maintain that they are acting on behalf of the NDS CHEFS ACADEMY organisation.
 - g. Any behaviour that constitutes elements of common-law or statutory crimes.
 - h. Insubordinate behaviour
3. Students/ Learner must conduct themselves everywhere and at all times in such a way that they do not disrupt order and discipline at the NDSCA in any way.
4. Students/ Learner must refrain from undisciplined conduct towards staff.
5. Students/Learners must respect the human dignity of their fellow-learners.
6. Students/Learners may neither organise nor participate in students/learner action if such action might harm the image of the NDSCA, cause damage or inconvenience to other people or if such action interferes or might interfere with the academic work of other learners or staff or with the functioning of the NDSCA.
7. A right to organise demonstrations and to deliver petitions is recognised. If students/learners want to organise a march, demonstration or partake in a similar event, they must apply for permission for such action in writing to the Executive at least ten (10) working days before the date of the action.
8. In considering the application, the Executive takes into account whether or not the action might:
 - a. Harm the image of the NDSCA;
 - b. Cause damage or inconvenience to other people;
 - c. Interfere with the academic work of other learners or staff; and
 - d. Interfere with the functioning of the NDSCA.
9. Students/Learners may neither intimidate fellow-students/learners or NDSCA staff nor participate in intimidatory action in a way that infringes or might infringe upon their rights.

4.6.2 Alcohol

Students/Learners commit a transgression if they contravene the rules and regulations of the NDSCA as a result of alcohol abuse.

4.6.3 Prohibited dependence-forming drugs

Students/Learners may not illegally possess and/or use any prohibited dependence-forming drugs as described in the Drugs and Drug-smuggling Act, No. 140 of 1992, on NDSCA premises, on any official tour or excursion of the NDSCA. Learners must not be found to be under the influence of drugs in any of the said places.

4.6.4 Academic integrity

- Students/Learners must attend all lectures, group classes, seminars, tutorials, practical classes and excursions.
- Students/Learners must complete all their prescribed work and write all tests.
- Students/Learners must comply with the regulations pertaining to the control of examinations and class tests.
- During assessments, learners may not:
 - Help or try to help other students/learners;
 - Obtain or try to obtain help from other students/learners;
 - Obtain or try to obtain information or help from any written source or other means except that which is expressly permitted by the invigilator or the relevant lecturers.
- Students/Learners may not submit any written assignment/essay to a lecturer for assessment if they have included the entire work or considerable sections of essentially unchanged extracts from the work of another students/learner or from another source without recognition of the source and of the extent of the inclusion thereof.

4.6.5 Theft and related transgressions

Students/Learners may not intentionally, negligently or without permission remove any property of the NDS or of any other person.

Learners may not commit fraud or theft, or participate in any action that constitutes an element of dishonesty. For anything missing from their tool boxes in the practical classes learners are to sign a liability for from NDSCA.

4.6.5 Damage to property

Students/Learners may not intentionally or negligently destroy or damage property that belongs to the NDSCA or any other person.

Student/Learners may not in any way write, draw or scratch on the walls or pillars of the NDSCA or on other parts of NDSCA property.

4.6.6 Language

Students/Learners are expected not to use improper language. They should remember that members of the public are around the college at all times and that many of them also understand other local languages. Improper language such as swear words and foul language are therefore not permitted on campus.

4.6.7 Relationship with Staff

Students/Learners may in no way interfere with the work of the staff, training unit or maintenance department.

Any complaints regarding staff must be lodged with the students/Learner Administration office. The Administration office must report such complaints to the Operational Manager or if not possible, to the Lecturing Unit.

4.6.8 Use and handling of fire arms

No fire arms are allowed on campus. Should there be a specific reason this must be declared with the office with immediate effect. The students with fire arms will not be allowed in class.

4.7 Students Rights in freedom of expression

4.7.1 Holding of Meetings and Functions

The right to hold a meeting or function at the college premises is recognised. If the students/learners wish to organise a meeting or function on college premises, they must apply for this in writing to the Executive at least ten (10) working days before the date of the event. In considering the application, the Executive will take into account whether or not the event might:

- Harm the image of the NDSCA;
- Cause damage or inconvenience to other people;
- Interfere with the academic work of other learners or staff; and
- Interfere with the functioning of the NDSCA.

No unapproved meetings may be held.

4.7.2 Distribution of Publications

The right to distribute documents and publications at the college is recognised. If students/learners wish to distribute documents and publications at the college, they must apply for this to the Executive in writing before 10 days to distributing publication. In considering an application, the Executive will take into account whether or not the distribution of documents and publications might:

- Harm the image of the NDSCA;
- Cause damage or inconvenience to other people;
- Interfere with academic work of other learners or staff; and
- Interfere with the functioning of the NDSCA.

If students/learners wish to distribute a publication containing the name of the NDSCA outside the NDSCA, they must apply to the Executive in writing. In considering such an application the Executive will take into account the conditions stated in this document.

4.7.3 Petitions

The right to draw up a petition is recognised. The right to draw up a petition may be revoked if it might harm the image of the NDSCA, cause damage or inconvenience to other people, or interfere with the academic work of other learners or staff or with the functioning of the NDSCA.

4.7.4 Enterprises

Written permission must be obtained from the Executive for any enterprise embarked on by learners in the name of/or under the auspices of NDSCA. Applications will be handled according to the criteria laid down by the Executive.

4.7.5 Giving Information

Nobody may provide a list of names or personal details of learners to any institution, or individual, whether inside the NDSCA or outside, without the written consent of the Academic Manager of NDSCA.

4.7.6 Students/Learner conduct

All students/learners are expected to conduct themselves in a professional, manner within the college premises as well the employer premises. In a case where a student/learner failed to conduct themselves in the professional manner according to the standards of the institution, the student/learner will face the academy disciplinary procedure.

Procedures for test and exams are stipulated in the students/learner code of conduct and the Academic Integrity Policy and should be followed by all students/learners studying at NDS Chefs Academy.

The academy premises are to be respected as stipulated the code of conducts.

Use of drugs within the academy premises and workplace is prohibited, should the students/learner be found under influence, will have to undergo the disciplinary procedure according to the code of conducts or even face being expelled from the workplace according to workplace code of conduct or suspended from campus,

Under no circumstance can a student talk bad or bring the name of the institution or the employer, this will be viewed as a serious offence.

4.7 Students/Learner Transgressions

A student/learner of the NDSCA shall be subject to such disciplinary measures as determined by the rules made by the host employer and NDSCA through contractual agreement.

Serious problems such as the possession of fire arms, sexual harassment, rape, vandalism, security, assault, and all such issues which are a threat to discipline and order of the college or may have permanent effect on students/learners, shall be handled by the Council Disciplinary Hearing Committee.

A student/learner transgresses if he/she:

- damages or destroys NDSCA property purposely or negligently or removes it without permission;
- brings legal or illegal drugs illegally or uses them illegally or has them in his possession;
- purposely gives false information to the press or makes a statement to any person;
- does not adhere to any internal residence rules which have been or approved by the management of the college;
- neglects his/her studies;
- intimidates a fellow students/learner or NDSCA staff member for whatever purpose or participates in any intimidatory act;
- Contravenes any rule, ban or stipulation of this constitution, or fails to adhere to it.

11.31 Interpretations and Amendment

The interpretation which the Executive gives to this Student/Learner Code of Conduct is considered to be the correct interpretation unless the Executive determines otherwise.

This Student/Learner Code of Conduct can only be amended by the Executive in consultation with the Academic Manager. Pending such amendment, the Executive can suspend any stipulation of this constitution.

4.7 Disciplinary Measures

4.7.1 Supervision and control of student/learner disciplines.

If a students/learner is found guilty of a contravention of this constitution, the NDSCA management in conjunction with the host employer concerned can impose any punishment agreed upon after a disciplinary hearing.

If found guilty, a student/learner has the right to appeal to the Executive of NDSCA. Such appeal must be made in writing within 48 hours of the learner being notified of the verdict.

4.7.2 The Disciplinary Hearing Committee

The Disciplinary Hearing Committee consists of the Learning co-ordinator (chairperson), one member of the student Committee, the staff member in charge of the section where the complaint comes from, should that member not be on the committee, and in the case of academic discipline, the learnership co-ordinator. In the case of work-based learning discipline, the manager at the workplace..

4.7.4 Contents of Summons

Unless otherwise instructed by the Disciplinary Committee the summons shall before issue be endorsed with full particulars of the alleged misconduct and shall include details of the time and place of the Disciplinary Committee hearing, which shall under normal circumstances be not sooner than five (5) working days after service of the summons but under serious circumstances.

However a Disciplinary Committee hearing can be held immediately, and a notice drawing the defendant's attention to the fact that it is his right to submit written statements in his defence and/or submit the names of witnesses he intends calling - such submissions to be made to the secretary of the Committee not later than twenty four (24) hours before the date and time set for the hearing) and a notice that the defendant will be tried in absentia should he fail to attend the hearing.

The summons shall also show the surname and initials of the accused as well as his address and learner number.

The summons shall be signed by the secretary of the Committee.

4.7.5 Service of Process

Any process shall be served by hand or handed over in the lecture hall by an employee of the NDSCA and a witness, or by placing a copy of such process in an envelope and addressing and posting it by pre-paid registered letter to the residential address provided either on the most recent application form completed by the student/learner for the purpose of registration or in any later written notice to the NDSCA of a change of address.

In the case of such service it shall be assumed that the student/learner received that process and particulars within five (5) working days of the date of posting thereof, regardless of whether the learner still resides at the address concerned.

The employee serving any process shall deliver the appropriate correspondence to the student/learner concerned, who will in then sign an attached copy of the correspondence and thereon, enter the date on which the correspondence is delivered, as proof of receipt. The mentioned copy will thereafter be submitted to the secretary of the Committee, by the employee serving the process, as proof that the process had been successfully terminated.

4.7.6 Proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee

Persons allowed at a Disciplinary Hearing

No legal representation of the student/learners shall be allowed at the hearing of the Disciplinary Committee and the only persons that may be present at a hearing of the Disciplinary Committee are:

- the members of the Committee,
- any members of the staff assisting in the process of the Committee,
- the pro forma prosecutor,
- the accused, and
- person(s) called as witness(es), with the provision that they may only be present whilst they are giving evidence,

In particular complex disciplinary cases or where a disciplinary committee requires special expertise, the Chief Executive Officer may appoint an ad hoc member, but in an advisory capacity only. Such a member may be appointed on the initiative of the Executive of the College, or in consequence of representations by any member of the accused learner.

4.7.7 Hearing in Absentia

The hearing of a student/learner may be held in absentia if such student/learner after being notified under these rules, neglects or fails to appear before the Disciplinary Committee concerned at the appointed time and the proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be invalidated as a result thereof

If a student/learner charged with misconduct interferes with or obstructs any proceedings of a disciplinary committee, or refuses to carry out an instruction of the Committee, the chairman may request the person to withdraw from the proceedings, which may then continue in his absence.

4.7.8 Rights of the accused student/learner and powers of the prosecutor

The accused student/learner shall have the right to:

- examine any written documentation, or acceptable copies thereof, which relates to the hearing and, subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the Prosecutor or a person authorised by him,
- give evidence himself,
- call witnesses or have them called by the person assisting him,
- examine, or have examined the witness(es) testifying against him, and his/her own witness(es) ,
- argue his own case or have it argued after all the evidence has been led,
- lead evidence in mitigation of any disciplinary sentence(s) that may be imposed upon him or have such evidence lead, and/or
- address the Disciplinary Committee, or have it addressed, on any disciplinary sentence(s) which may be imposed upon him.

A student/learner who does not wish to attend the hearing personally, may submit a written, signed statement which statement will be deemed to contain his/her entire testimony, and which will have been deemed to have afforded him/her the opportunity to attend and defend himself/herself.

A student/learner who has been found guilty of any offence has the right to appeal to the Executive Officer in writing within seven working days after his/her hearing and have his/her name cleared if proved not guilty.

The Prosecutor may:

- call witnesses and examine and re-examine the witness(es) giving evidence against the accused student/learner;
- examine the accused student/learner, if he gave evidence, as well as any other person who testified on behalf of the accused student/learner and
- argue the disciplinary case after all the evidence has been led.

At the conclusion of the hearing of evidence the Disciplinary Committee, shall retire to deliberate.

The decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be communicated to the Executive in writing as soon as possible after the hearing.

The judgement of the Disciplinary Committee shall be confirmed to the accused if present and in any event shall be confirmed in writing as soon as possible.

The Disciplinary Committee may:

- suspend any punishment on such conditions as it may deem fit,
- postpone the passing of sentence for such period as it may determine,

4.8 Learnership Grievance Procedure

- The learner shall first verbally raise the grievance. If the learner so wishes, he/she can be assisted by a representative.
- If the grievance has not been resolved within 24 hours of its having been lodged with the immediate Training Manager, the learner shall complete the grievance form in triplicate, outlining the pertinent facts and the solution desire.
- If the grievance is resolved, the solution shall be recorded on the grievance form by the Training Manager. The learner shall sign the grievance form thereby indicating that he/she has accepted the solution as set out.
- The grievance form shall also be signed by the representative in the presence of the learner.
- The Training Manager will place the form in the learner's personal file, for record purposes.
- If the grievance is not resolved and the learner wishes to take the grievance further, he/she may take the grievance to the next level.

The NDS is not responsible for any medical expenses due to illness, injury or pregnancy.

6. Policy Maintenance

6.1 Policy Statement – Maintenance

The Academic Manager is responsible and accountable for managing and overseeing the implementation and review of the Learner Management Policy, processes, and administrative support.

The Policy on Learner Management will be reviewed annually on the following basis:

- Achievement of quality objectives and performance indicators
- Feedback from operational reports and audits conducted during the course of implementation over a year period

6.2 Quality Objectives and Quality Indicators of this Policy

NDS shall annually, after consultation with its internal staff resources:

1. determine measurable quality objectives for Learner Management based on development and management of ETD staff.
2. communicate and explain the approved quality objectives and performance indicators clearly to relevant staff.

6.3 Costing of Policy Implementation

The NDS undertakes to conduct a review of the cost of implementation of the Learner Management Policy on an annual basis.

Elements of cost that will be considered include, but not limited to the following:

1. NDSCA staff – percentage of time spent on implementation
2. Cost, efficiency and effectiveness of administrative systems